Crucifixion

Praise The Power of the Cross

Oh to see the dawn of the darkest day
Christ on the road to Calvary
Tried by sinful men, torn and beaten then Nailed to the cross of wood

This the power of the cross
Christ became sin for us, took the blame,
bore the wrath
We stand forgiven at the cross

Oh to see the pain written on your face
Bearing the awesome weight of sin
Every bitter thought every evil deed
Crowning your blood stained brow

This the power of the cross
Christ became sin for us, took the blame,
bore the wrath
We stand forgiven at the cross

Now the day light flees, now the ground beneath
Quakes as its maker bows his head
Curtain torn in two, dead are raised to life
Finished, the victory cry

This the power of the cross
Christ became sin for us, took the blame,
bore the wrath
We stand forgiven at the cross

Oh to see my name written in the woods
For through your suffering I am free Death is crushed to death, life is mine to live
Won through your selfless love

This the power of the cross
Son of God slain for us, one above, one across
We stand forgiven at the cross

Luke 23:26, 32-43 - Barbara

Luke 23: 44-49 - Andy

Thank you to each and everyone of you who dressed up, created craft kits, lent a Christmas tree or donated cushions to make our interactive 'Walk through Holy Week' schools' event such an engaging and successful event for the young people of Tarves, Pitmedden, Methlick, and Barthol Chapel primary schools. We have had some fantastic feedback. Thank you.

The Easter garden is now outside the church. Please stop for a while to look at our Easter display, created by young people in the community. Reflect on the love and hope in our world.
